A telegraph operator in the State Journal office is employed for the sole purpose of taking this report, which comes continuously from 7:30 a. m. till 4:30 p. m. (with bulletins of important news up to 5 p. m.) over a wire running into this office and used only for the day Associated Press business between the hours above named.

The State Journal is the only paper in Kansas receiving the Full Day Associated Press Report.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Forecast till 8 p. m. Sunday. For Kansas—Partly cloudy; warmer in western portion Sunday; variable winds.

A BANK robbery in broad day light in Missouri begins to sound like old times again.

MARSHAL NEELY thinks, "Now that I've got them what shall I do with them?"

BIBLE students don't have any sympathy with the commonwealers because their name is Legion.

THE country is beginning to understand how Cleveland felt when he said he had congress on his hands.

If Coxe carries out his intention of making a lecture tour he will wish more than ever for his good roads.

NEARLY every industrial army is daft in some of its ideas but they are all orthodox in their hatred of Cleveland.

THE reason New York wants to kill the big elephant "Tip" is probably because elephants are natural foes of tigers.

SANDERS' men don't care how often they get arrested, if it takes them three hundred miles nearer Washington every time.

It cannot be denied that most of Sanders men look as intelligent and act as sensibly as some of the people who delight to call them hoboes.

WHEN the commonwealers sing, "If Cleveland is there we'll kick him in the air," they look like they meant what they said and were able to do it.

THE Missouri Pacific refused to haul the Cripple Creek army to Kansas City for $1,000 in freight cars, and then sent a special train of coaches after them!

Nor the least of the evils resulting from our little affair with Hawaii is that the people over there think we want to hear of every little thing they do and so tell us all about it.

THE fellow out near Salina who got a coat of tar and feathers for being mixed up in a scandal wishes he lived in Kentucky where it would have been only a coat of whitewash.

No doubt Secretary Osborn was dreadfully disappointed when he found that not one of Sanders' army had traded a cow for a Winchester. A good many of them would like to trade a Winchester for a cow though if they had one.

CONGRESSMAN HOLMAN says the people always get anxious for congress to adjourn about this time. Well, isn't it natural that they should? If after six months almost continuous session they haven't done anything the public begins to suspect that they never will.

SECRETARY OF STATE GRESHAM has refused to interfere with Randall's army in Indiana. Mr. Gresham has learned perhaps, since the Hawaiian episode, that the business of rushing in and interfering isn't what it is "cracked up to be."

THE shooting of "Colonel" Paisley of the Sacramento Commonwealth yesterday by a constable at Rocklin, Cal., was the first blood that has been shed in these movements and therefore very unfortunate. It is possible it may have been uncalculated for but when a body of men disregard the rights of property and then resist when taken to task for it, they run the risk of just such things occurring.

THE sermon of the Rev. Dr. Herron of Iowa, on "Political Economy of the Lord's Prayer," delivered at the Congregational association meeting at Emporia, is to be used by the Populists as a campaign document. The Populists are always on the lookout for something of this sort outside the ranks of their own party, and considering the fact that Mr. Herron is a brilliant orator and a great scholar, his sermon is quite a windfall for them. It was a good sermon, and lots of people besides Populists endorse it. We see no way for the Republicans to prevent Populists from using these good things in their campaigns unless they use them themselves. As a noted preacher said about church music—don't let the devil have all the good tunes.

DYSPEPSIA VS. PRINCIPLES.

[From the Kansas City Journal.]

Some of our good newspaper friends in Topeka and Lawrence are very much disturbed because the Journal has a considerable word for men who are earnest enough to go afoot three hundred miles to present a petition to congress to give them work. We don't print the names of the papers out of respect to their innocent families and friends, and because they have done some good things which charity remembers. But what they seem particularly to object to is the following:

"If congress can afford to put a man in the lookout who, in a travel of 300 miles on foot to present his petition, violated no law, the man can stand it."

If any man of ordinary cornfield gumption will read the testimony in the trial of Coxe for a violation of the "Keep off the grass law," as given yesterday morning, and have the gall to do anything but laugh at the spectacle presented, the gray matter must be very thin with him. Coxe started with a following and marched across four states to present a petition to congress in favor of good roads and he was run after by forty policemen, arrested and calabossed and dragged before a police judge for walking on the grass. Seriously, literally, that is the allegation and the only charge preferred in open court by this great nation against this "crazy" man. We think the man can stand it if congress can. A new issue has suddenly risen to confront the freemen of America—"Keep off the grass." It has two able champions already—one at Lawrence and one at Topeka.

The following is printed in the Boys Industrial School Journal published at Lancaster, Ohio:

The Kansas reform school is in much trouble, and the institution is to be investigated. Ever since the Populists took the institution into their hands and made a political machine of it, the reform school has had to buffet tempestuous waves, and now it is about to go upon the rocks and be wrecked. We are sorry for the unfortunate boys in that school. From the peaceful, quiet, progressive home, where they were cared for and educated as the children of a model father and mother, they suddenly find themselves in the hands of a set of men and women whose only care seems to be to herd the boys, draw their salaries, and fight each other. Until within less than two years ago the Kansas state reform school stood the peer of any like institution in the world—was an ideal school for unfortunate boys, and today a worse state of affairs exists in no other reform school.

STARVING 'MID PLENTY

Why Will So Many People Persist in Doing So?

WHEN IT IS NEEDLESS.

Discovery of a Food Which is Completely Digested Before Being Eaten, Thus Enabling the Weakest Stomach to Absorb It.

If you are starving, it is all the same whether you starve because you cannot get food to eat or because you cannot digest what you do eat. The effects are the same. The results are the same.

There is a certain difference; in this way: The poor man if he gets enough food will soon get fat. The invalid, whatever food he may eat, cannot get fat, unless he feeds on artificially digested food.

Since Paskola, the pre-digested food, has been prepared, people have rapidly been growing fatter. Before Paskola, there was nothing that could be done to cure dyspepsia. It was the bane of the doctors. Drugs could do nothing. Cod liver oil made it worse. Dyspeptics, anemics, consumptives and all people who were thin and pale, who in fact were starving amidst plenty, were thought incurable.

Today it is different. We have Paskola. We know that Paskola, being pre-digested, will cure starving invalids. It will make thin people fat. It will make pale people rosy. It will make weak people strong.

Paskola does this because it is a food. Because it is a food that will feed you whether you can digest other food or not.

The starches are the fattening foods. We know this because doctors forbid starchy food to people who are growing too fat.

The chief merit in Paskola is that it is a pre-digested food. Another, that it is a starchy food. Another, that it helps you to digest what other food you may eat.

The chief good that Paskola can do is to make all thin people grow fat. Another, to relieve the pangs of indigestion. Another, to put fresh life in your veins, and make you feel young and stronger.

If Paskola were a medicine, it would do you no permanent good at all. It is not a medicine; it is a food. We need food every day of our lives. We do not need medicine.

Just see what Paskola has done for others.

VALPARAISO, IND.,

The Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade St., New York.

GENTLEMEN: Your letter of April 3d at hand. Regarding my symptoms before I used Paskola, I was very weak; I could not digest anything; I tried everything to gain strength but failed. My doctor advised me to use Paskola, and I am satisfied it is the only thing for a weak stomach. I have gained two pounds a week.

My only trouble now is constipation, and I have been expecting those tablets every day. If my bowels would work right, I am sure I would be happy.

My liver is very bad at times and I get bilious. There is nothing that helps indigestion like Paskola. I have tried about twelve doctors and have been suffering more than four years.

I will say that I have been so weak that I could work only about two days in a week. For nearly three years I spent all I had for doctoring and had given up hope. I am sure Paskola will restore me. Trusting to hear from you very early.

Yours truly,

P. A. HANK.

GENTLEMEN: Through the advice of friends I decided to try your Paskola for my daughter who has been in very poor health for several months past from loss of appetite and general debility.

She had wasted away in flesh, and at the time she began taking Paskola weighing 112 pounds, and after two weeks' treatment gained eight pounds. She is gaining in health and strength daily, with increasing appetite for the most hearty food that was repugnant to her before taking Paskola.

As a flesh-forming food, I think it far superior to Cod Liver Oil or other similar preparations, and am more than gratified with the results.

WILLIAM T. ROSS.

Paskola may be obtained of any reputable druggist. A pamphlet on food and digestion will be mailed free, on application to The Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade St., New York.

WANDERING PUGILISTS

Stop at Topeka Looking for a Fight of Some Kind.

"Johnnie" Van Heest of Newark, N. J., who poses as the champion 120-pound fighter of America, is stopping at the Fifth Avenue hotel, accompanied by his friend Jacob Lynch, who is one of the gamest featherweights in the ring. They are looking for games and are willing to tackle anything in Topeka that comes within 15 or 20 pounds of their class. They are willing to give away this much. Or, if they can't get a game this way, Heest is willing to stand against any two local pugilists. He would prefer to meet Bradshaw or "Kid" Rolerson. They are willing to fight anything from a six-round bout to a final.

Heest and Lynch told a JOURNAL reporter they would stay in Topeka an indefinite length of time, and they would like to come in conflict with "the talent" of Topeka and try to convince them that they are lacking in the elementary principles of "talent." They came here from Kansas City.
